

Travel and Tourism Independent Study Framework

Year 12

During independent study you should be reading over class notes and create revision material for the exam you will sit During the Summer Term, which will count towards 25% of your final grade. Use the AS Travel book you have been given to help reflect on what you have learnt in the lesson and to reaffirm what you have studied in class.

As you read through the chapters attempt some of the activities and ask your teacher to mark them.

During independent study time you can complete coursework tasks you can also, check the work you are producing matches the exam board guidelines for the higher grades. Use the Travel, OneNote page to look at the guidelines provided to you from the exam board.

You could also use this time to read over your work to check for spelling and grammar errors. It would also be beneficial if you check each page has your name and what task you are completing i.e. "P1 – Describe the needs of different types of customers."

Aim to have Unit 2 completed by November 12th
